COMMUNITY WELFARE GRANTS

Grants recommended by the Community Welfare Grants Advisory Committee, totalling more than $85,000 were announced today by the Premier, Mr Dunstan.

He said the grants would be paid to 40 voluntary organisations to subsidise salaries and to assist in the training of youth leaders.

Community Projects grants of a further $18,860 were also announced.

Many organisations receiving grants in 1972/73 had applied for bigger grants this year, Mr Dunstan said.

This was because increased salaries had amounted to more than increases in contributions from members of the organisations or donations from the public, he said.

It had not been possible to make grants for new activities, except in a few cases, because of the volume of ongoing commitments from previous grants.

One of the largest grants, a new one for $3,500, would be made to the Citizens Advice Bureau towards the salary of its director.

Other organisations to receive substantial grants would be S.A. Youth Clubs Holden Hill ($3,500), Service to Youth Council ($6,000) and the Prisoners Aid Association ($3,000).

Mr Dunstan said the Welfare Grants Advisory Committee was still considering building and equipment grants. He hoped to be able to announce these soon.
